

KYLY BOLDY-CLARKE

Actress, Mum, Author, Interior Designer & TV Personality

Kyly Boldy-Clarke is an Australian Actress, Mum, Model, Author, Presenter, and Interior Design. Kyly is passionate about health, fitness, fashion, design & property development all while being a busy Mum, living a holistic and balanced lifestyle.

What some people do not know about Kyly is that she started out her TV career at the ripe age of 8 years young. Appearing in numerous TV Commercials, The Milky Bar Kid being her first, dating back to 1989. As she progressed through TV commercials, Kyly landed a walk-on role on Home and Away as Natalie, then later that same year Pearl on Police Rescue and as Loretta a receptionist in a Tropfest Short Film "The Full Gamut" Starring Richard Carter, Tiriell Mora and Linal Haft.

Kyly moved into TV Presenting with her most noted show to date, as a judge on Channel Seven's House Rules in 2020. Previously, Kyly was a weather presenter on The Weather Channel for Foxtel presenting live daily broadcasts. In 2021 Kyly was a finalist on Dancing with the Stars - All Stars and in 2022 competed in Celebrity Ninja Warrior winning her heat and bagging the win for her charity.

With a background in drama, dance and theatre Kyly's modelling and acting skills have been utilised in both print and television campaigns as well as TV commercials, working with premium brands and publications both locally and internationally. Kyly has a strong presence and is extremely adaptable to different scenarios throughout the industry that is her soul passion.

Kyly has also worked in a digital and social media capacity with some of Australia's top leading beauty and lifestyle brands creating innovative and engaging content, and is currently an ambassador for TimberTech one of Australia's top home renovation and building companies.

She is confident, funny, exciting, with an outgoing personality who has hosted and emceed numerous events for local and international clients. One of Kyly's key statements is "Life isn't about finding yourself, it's about creating yourself."

Kyly released her first book True to You words for an inspiring life, in which she speaks about ways to find calmness and gratitude in life, how to find the right balance and teach yourself to stay true to your values and morals.

Interior Design and construction have become a strong element in Kyly's commercial repertoire since covid in 2020. Kyly completed her trade certificate as an Interior Decorator with Sydney Design School over 10 years ago and has since worked on a number of high-profile properties. She is currently developing new homes for clients and offering inspirational renovations for others, to date Kyly has flipped and developed more than 20 homes for herself and her clients.

Kyly lives in Sydney with her 7-year-old daughter.

Instagram 67K @kylyclarke Twitter 54.5K @kylyclarke

Hair: Light Brown | Eyes: Hazel Brown | Height: 171cm

